s. Mansfield, Louisa; W. Y. Nool, Danville; G. W. Knott, Oxford.

Our Colonel Thomas J. Spencer has just returned from the country, and says; "Phi tobacco crop so far set out in the country of Charlotte is looking well, out not more than from 60 to 70 per cent, of a crop has been good up to this time, and the corn trop is a fine one. So far as I could get information, the tobacco crop is a short one in that section."

Our Mr. John M. Taylor went down to North Carolina on Saurday last, and returned to Richmond by the 430 P. at. Danville train this afternoon. Mr. W. H. Walker, of Henderson, N. C., was with him. These gentlemen report a lot of 3,925 pounds of tobacco cheing sold in Henderson, N. C., this morning, for the sample $1,613.62, or at an average of $44.11 per hundred pounds. This lot of tobacco was raised by a Mr. Floyd on a plantation belonging to Mr. D. Y. Cooper, situated about two miles from Henderson. The crops, they say, are looking well, and in a better condition for a finer crop than we have seen to years; but rains are needed.

Mr. Robert Haskins, of Clarksville, arrived in Richmond Tobacco market was very active to-day, with good sales of bright flight wrappers, and a large sale of bright flight, Receipts were large. Reinspections of plug to-baccos were very good to-day, with light deliveries, being about one-half the receipts. Internal revenue collections on plug to-baccos were very good to-day. C. McL.

former rebellions, for the time is not known when the Cretans were not either in open insurrection or secret conspiracy against the Governors of their island. It was its occupied by the Saracens, A. D. 823, and the Cretans were in constant mutiny until their island was retaken by the Greeks eighty years atterwards; then they rebelled against the Greeks, and were by them handed over to the Venetians. In 134 a violent insurrection was begun against the Venetian Governor, and after several years of war, attended with great bloodshed and much cruelty on both sides, the Cretans were subdued, and subdued so effectually that, although the Venetians ruled the island until 1645, no more is heard of Cretan rebellion. At the lastnamed date the Turks came, landed in the northern ports, and began the slege of Kinamick which continued for twenty-four years, being the longest slege of modern times. During this siege over 204,00 lives were lost, but Khania was finally overcome, and the whole of the northern part of the island was overrun by the Turkish forces. But the island was never completely subdued. ROANOKE COLLEGE IN the mountains. the mountains.

Sister Rose Gertrude, writing to the Rev. Hugh Chapman from Kalihi Oaha, Hawalian Islands, under date March 11, says: "I am not going to Molokai at any rate at present. There is a new leper station here, and the president of the Board of Health says that I shall be much more usful here. There is no one, and there are twenty poor lepers under the care of Dr. Lutz. Besides there are a great many suspects, and here there are children. The doctor saysit would be a better work to teach these children and to comfort them in the newness of their grief. I don't think for the present we need anything. Later on we might have some more books, pictures, toys and sweets! I should like some picture books and any sort of games. I am going to keep some of the presents for Kalihi, and send or tak the rest to Molokai. I think this will meet with your approval. The Americans gave a lot of things, too. I should like some lovely English story books for prizes for my little class, and I should like "Ethel's Book of the Angels' (Burns and Oates) and some tales of martyrs that might help them to bear their martrydom. Dr. Kimball says I may have some of my children for twenty years."
